the principal soloist of the Central China Symphony is going to be here tonight. These are complimentary tickets and if you cannot go, please give them to your staff. And if you would write complimentary on them, I didn't do that, so would you do that and give them to your staff or...I couldn't afford a stamp, Senator Schellpeper, but...so I would like to bring your attention to these. He is a very fine pianist and I hope some of you can attend. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Senator Lynch says that there is some goodies floating around here, courtesy of the League of Municipalities, County Officials Association, excuse me. Pardon me. So, you owe thank you to them if you happen to get one. Mr. Clerk, do you have anything further?

CLERK: Mr. President, three resolutions. (Read introduction of LR 220-222. See pages 2286-88 of the Legislative Journal.) All will be referred to the Reference Committee. That is all that I have.

PRESIDENT: Okay, you have heard the motion to adjourn. All those in favor say aye. Opposed nay. And you are welcome to stay for our special ceremony. May I ask the following please to be escorts: Senator Lamb...(Recorder shut off.)
